English Grammar Practice

Students' Book

with CD-Rom

PEARSON
Longman

Introduction

New Round-Up 3 English Grammar Practice combines games and fun with serious, systematic grammar practice. It is ideal for young learners in the preliminary stages of English language learning.

Students see grammar points clearly presented in colourful boxes and tables. They practise grammar through lively, highly illustrated games and oral and writing activities.

New Round-Up is especially designed for different students studying English in different ways.

It can be used:

- in class with a coursebook. Students do both oral work – in pairs and in groups – and written work in New Round-Up.
- after class. The 'write-in' activities are ideal for homework. Students can practise what they have learned in the classroom.
- in holidays for revision. New Round-Up has clear instructions and simple grammar boxes, so students can study at home without a teacher.

The New Round-Up Teacher's Guide includes a full answer key, quizzes, tests plus answer keys, and audio scripts of progress check listening tasks.

The Passive

Listen and repeat. Then act out.

We form the passive with the verb 'to be' and the past participle of the main verb.

The letter was written by Tim.

Study the following examples to see how the passive is formed in the present simple and past simple:

	Active	Passive
Present Simple	Jack waters the plants.	The plants are watered by Jack.
Past Simple	Tina sent the email.	The email was sent by Tina.

Interrogative	Negative
Are the plants watered every week?	The plants aren't watered every week.
Was the email sent by Tina?	The email wasn't sent by Tina.

When changing a sentence from the active to the passive:

- the object of the active sentence becomes the subject of the passive sentence.
- the active verb changes into a passive form. (to be + past participle)
- the subject of the active sentence becomes the agent and is either introduced with the preposition by or omitted.

	subject	verb	object
Active	George	fed	the dog.
Passive	The dog	was fed	by George.

We use the passive:

- when the agent (the person who does the action) is unknown, unimportant or obvious from the context.

My wallet was stolen yesterday. (unknown agent)

The house is cleaned twice a week. (unimportant agent)

The thief was arrested. (by the police – obvious agent)

- when the agent is one of the following words: people, one, someone/somebody, they, he, etc.
