Tiffany started baking cookies when she was in the fifth grade. By the time she was in the seventh grade, her cookies were famous. All her friends would ask her to make her famous chocolate chip cookies for them almost every week. Then , one day a local newspaper wrote a story about her and her famous cookies. The story was about the number of different recipes Tiffany could make and how tasty her cookies were. Upon reading the story, a businessman called Tiffany to see if she would sell her famous cookies recipe. Tiffany sold him her chocolate recipe for twenty thousand dollars, but she didn't sell her banana cookies recipe. She decided to keep it to start her own business.

Read the following passage , then answer the questions below :

When Emma came back home from work yesterday evening, she was very tired. Her husband wasn't there yet. She went to the kitchen and started to prepare soup for dinner. Then, she went to her bedroom. Emma wanted to relax a little. Yet she quickly slept, forgetting to switch off the gas cooker. Suddenly a fire began in the kitchen and started to spread to the other rooms.

When it saw the fire, the pet cat Prissy made strange loud noises near the sleeping woman. But Emma was so tired that she did not wake up. Prissy made louder noises and then it jumped on Emma's face. So, Emma opened her eyes and saw the smoke in the house. Emma was very scared when everything around her was burning. She has just time to run away from the house with Prissy and to shout for help. What Prissy did was really heroic. It saved Emma's life. Emma was proud of her smart cat.

A) READING COMPREHENSION (20 Marks)

Nasser asked his mother if he could ride his bike to the park. She said, " it's ok, but don't forget to wear your helmet." When he got to the park, it was very dirty and crowded with people holding black bags. His friends were there, and also his teachers. His friend Ali said, " Everyone is cleaning the park today, would you like to help?" Nasser said, "sure" and asked for a garbage bag.

Nasser started to help his friends cleaning the park. He picked up empty bottles, papers and juice pouches. After an hour, he filled 3 bags. When everyone was finished, one of the teachers loaded the bags into a truck, and took them away. The park looked clean. They put up signs around the park that read " Please, keep the park clean." To thank everyone, the teachers bought pizza and juice for those who helped cleaning the park. After they ate, they put their garbage into the garbage cans.
