The Prisoner of Zenda Chapter 2

A. Answer these questions

8. Why do you think Fritz says that it is not a good time for Rassendyll to visit Strelsau?

As there will be problems with someone who looks so much like the King

9. How does the King react to Fritz's suggestion, and what does that tell you about the King?

The King seems surprised by the suggestion (He says, "What?") and asks Sapt what he thinks. Perhaps it means that the King is not very wise, or that he depends too much on other people for advice

10. Why don't Fritz and Sapt eat very much? What advice do they give the King? Does he listen to them?

They don't want to overeat because they have to get up early the next day. They advise the King not to eat too much. He doesn't listen to them

11. What happens at the end of the meal? What is the result the next day?

He hopes that the King will miss the coronation and that he (the Duke) will become the King instead

13. Is Rassendyll also poisoned? Why isn't he as sick as the King?

He is probably also poisoned because they have to throw water in his face to wake him up. But he ate only one cake, so he didn't eat as much poison. The King eats more, so he receives more poison

16. Who overhears their plan? What do they do with the person?

Johann's mother (who is a servant to the Duke) overhears the plan. They tie her up and lock her in the cellar with the King. Josef will let her out later

17. Why do they go to the station early instead of waiting for Duke Michael's guards?

The Duke's guards have probably been told to kidnap or kill the King. They want to get out of the lodge and be on their way to the capital before the Duke's men come

18. What is the first thing they do when they reach the capital? Why aren't the people from the palace at the station in Strelsau to meet them?

The first thing they do is eat breakfast at the train station.
The palace people aren't there yet because the King
(Rassendyll) arrived earlier than planned

The Prisoner of Zenda Chapter 3

A. Answer these questions

19. What kind of people live in the old part of the city? What does Rassendyll do when the Marshal wants him to ride through the old part of town?

The people in the old part are poor and many of them are loyal to Duke Michael. Rassendyll tells the soldiers to ride ahead and behind him, not next to him, so that he can show the people that he trusts them

20. Why is Sapt so anxious about Rassendyll's decision to ride alone through the old town?

He knows that the people in the old town support the Duke and he is afraid that Rassendyll will be hurt or attacked there

21. Why does Duke Michael's face turn white when he sees "the King" (Rassendyll)?

He thought that the King was still in Zenda (because he had poisoned him), so he is surprised to see the King here at the coronation

22. Does Michael realise that this is not the real King? How do you know?

Yes, Michael knows Rassendyll is not the real King. First, Michael knows (or thinks) that the King is poisoned and still in Zenda

23. Does the Princess know that this is not the real King? What does she say about him?

She thinks this is the real King, but she says that he has changed. He is more tired and serious, and also thinner

24. Why do Rassendyll and Sapt need a permit to leave the city?

Michael controls the city and he has had news from Zenda, so he won't want people to leave the city

25. How do they get a permit from the King?

Sapt can write like the King and he signs the paper

26. What does Fritz do while Sapt and Rassendyll go to Zenda?

He stays and guards the bedroom. He must not let anyone inside the room

27. How do Sapt and Rassendyll get out of the palace? Why do they go this way?

They go through a secret passage in the wall and out of a secret back door. They do this because they don't want anyone to see them and they want people to think that the King is in his bedroom

28. Who else is riding to Zenda? Which way do they go at the fork in the road? Which way do Sapt and Rassendyll go?

Duke Michael and his servant Max Holt are riding to Zenda. They decide to go to the castle. Sapt and Rassendyll go to the hunting lodge

29. What do you think the message "all is well" means?

It probably means that the King is captured, as that is what the Duke was planning, but there may be other details that are also "well"

30. What do Sapt and Rassendyll find inside the lodge?

Johann's mother and the King are gone. Josef is killed

31. What does Sapt want Rassendyll to do?

He wants him to continue to pretend to be the King

Read the quotations and answer the questions

Tell your soldiers to ride ahead of me. I don't need them or you. You can wait here until I've continued through the old town alone

I. Who says this to whom? Rassendyll says this to Marshal Strakencz

Where are they and when is this? They are in the streets of Strelsau, going from the station to the coronation. This is before the coronation

?Why does the speaker say this? 3

He wants to act as a king. He wants the people to know that .
he trusts them

You mustn't try too hard. I'm not sure it was a good idea " to ride alone through the old town. Duke Michael won't like it if you become too popular with his people, you know "

Who says this to whom? Fritz says this to Rassendyll .1

Where and when is this said? They are in the King's .2
.bedroom after the coronation

Why did the person ride alone through the old town .3
and why won't Duke Michael like it if the person becomes ?too popular

Rassendyll wanted to act like a real king and show that he wasn't afraid of the people/show that he trusted the people. Duke Michael won't like it because if he tries to become King, the people will probably support him. But if the King/Rassendyll becomes popular, it will be harder for Michael to get the support of the people

If all's well, why go there? And if all isn't well, I fear " .there 'll be a trap

Who says this to whom? Max Holt says this to Duke .1
.Michael

Where are they? They are on the road between Strelsau .2
.and Zenda./On the way to Zenda

What is "there"? What do you think he means by .3
?"all's well

There" means the hunting lodge. "All's well" probably " .
means that the Duke's plan has gone ahead and that the King
.is kidnapped

We'll go back to Strelsau. The King will be back in the " .!
!capital again tomorrow

Who says this to whom? Sapt says this to Rassendyll .1

Where are they and what has happened? They are in the .2 hunting lodge near Zenda. They have found Josef dead and .the King is gone

How will the King be back in the capital tomorrow? .3
Rassendyll will continue to pretend to be the King. / Sapt
.wants Rassendyll to continue to pretend to be the King

The Prisoner of Zenda Chapter 4

A. Answer these questions

32.What does Sapt plan to do if the real King is dead?

.He plans that Rassendyllwill remain as King

33.Why do Michael's men have spades? What does it mean that they were going to "hide their evil work"?

They are going to bury Josef's body so no one will know .about his murder

34.What does Rassendyll mean that some of those evil men should join Josef?

Rassendyll means that some of them should be killed. They .should join Josef in death

35.Why does Sapt say to the servant at the secret door "All young men like to ride their horses now and then, so why not the King?"

He wants the servant to think that the King was just out riding for fun. He doesn't want him to know anything about where they were. Sapt says it's best not to trust people too .much

36.Why does Rassendyll use a new servant who has never met the real King? Who is the servant replacing?

The new servant would be less likely to realise that Rassendyll is not the real King. The servant is replacing
.Josef, who was killed by Michael's men

37.Who are the Six Men? Where are they from? Why are only three in Strelsau?

They are six special soldiers that Duke Michael keeps in his house all the time. Three are from Ruritania, one is French, one is Belgian, one is English. Sapt and Fritz assume that if only three are in Strelsau, the other three must be guarding
.the King

38.Rassendyll decides to keep some of his plans secret from Sapt and Fritz. What are those plans?

He plans to make himself as popular as he can, and to not say anything bad about Michael. This way, if there were a fight, some of the people would support him (the King) and not
.Michael. Michael would not become stronger this way

39.Why does he visit the Princess? What does he do on the way? How do these things make him more popular?.

He wants to get the support of the Princess (for the King).
On the way he buys some flowers from a poor girl and pays with a gold coin. Giving the coin makes him look generous to the people. The people like the Princess and seem to want the King to marry her, so visiting her will make the people happy.

40.Why can't Michael come into the room when the King is there? What mistake does Rassendyll make? How does he cover up his mistake?

because the King is royal and higher than Michael.
Rassendyll does not know this rule, and he makes the mistake of asking why Michael will be angry (that he isn't asked to enter the room). He covers his mistake by saying .that he keeps forgetting all the rules

41.Rassendyll says that his hand was hurt from an animal bite and that he's waiting to see if the bite is poisonous. He also says that he is sure the animal will try to bite again.
Who is he really talking about, and who understands this?

He is really talking about Michael (his poisoning and kidnapping of the King, and his men's shooting at .Rassendyll), and Michael understands this

42. How does Rassendyll know that the Six Men also know his secret?

He knows because of the way Detchard (the Englishman) smiles at him when he is presented to him. Rassendyll knows that if one of the Six Men knows, they will all know

Read the quotations and answer the questions

"!You're mad! The plan's too dangerous"

Who says this to whom? Rassendyll says this to Colonel Sapt. 1

Where are they? They are at the hunting lodge near Zenda. 2

What is the dangerous plan? Sapt wants Rassendyll to continue to pretend to be the King and to return to Strelsau that night. 3

We've got them! They can't say anything without showing "their guilt"

Who says this to whom? Sapt says this to Rassendyll. 1

Why does he say this? He is trying to persuade Rassendyll to continue to be the King. 2

Who is "them"? What does the speaker mean by "We've got them"? "Them" is Duke Michael and his men. The speaker means that they have trapped the Duke and his men. The Duke can't say anything against Rassendyll because he would have to admit that he is guilty of kidnapping the real King. 3

Now remember, say nothing about this. All young men like to ride their horses now and then, so why not the "King"

Who says this to whom? Sapt says this to (Freyler,) the servant waiting for them outside the secret door to the palace. 1

Where is the speaker coming from and who is with him? He was coming from Zenda and Rassendyll (disguised as the King) was with him. 2

Why does the speaker say this? Why does the speaker say this? He doesn't want the servant to talk about the King's going out. He wants him to think that the King was just out riding (and enjoying himself). 3

The Prisoner of Zenda Chapter 543. Rassendyll has never liked responsibilities. Now he has many. What responsibilities does he have?

He has to act like the King. He has to run the country. He has to try to rescue the real King from Michael

44. Why does Rassendyll become good at pretending he has forgotten rules or people he has met? How does that prevent people from noticing that he is not the real King? What else do you think helps him not to be discovered?

When he makes a mistake in pretending to be the King he has to cover it up by pretending that he has forgotten something or someone. In this way, people don't notice that he's not the real King. Other things that might help him are these: people don't expect that there is a pretend King, so they don't look for one; they see what they expect to see. He looks nearly identical to the King, so this helps. Also Sapt stays close to him to tell him what to say or do

45. Sapt brings news of the real King. What is it?

The King is at the Castle of Zenda

46. Why does Rassendyll want to go to Zenda? What does Sapt mean when he says "You'll probably stay there forever if you do"?

He wants to go to rescue the real King. Sapt means that Rassendyll will either be imprisoned in Zenda or killed there if he goes

47. Why does Sapt have Rassendyll followed everywhere? What does he mean by "If you disappear, the game's over"?

He has him followed to protect him from Michael's men. If they can kill or kidnap Rassendyll, they will kill the real King and make Michael the King. Rassendyll's game of pretending to be King would be over

48. Who writes a letter to Rassendyll and what does it say? Who does he suspect really wrote it?

Antoinette de Mauban writes a letter. It tells him to come to a certain place in a summer house in a garden late at night. He suspects that Michael wrote the letter (or at least dictated it to her)

49. When Rassendyll talks to Detchard at the summer house, what does Detchard offer him? Why doesn't Rassendyll accept it?

Detchard offers to give Rassendyll 50,000 English pounds and a safe journey to the border. Rassendyll doesn't accept this because he knows that they will kill the real King, and he doesn't trust them. They will promise him one thing but kill him instead

50. How does Rassendyll come out of the summer house alive?

He holds the iron table in front of him to protect him (like a shield) and he rushes out of the door and knocks the three men down. He runs quickly away

1. Why have they prepared a ball for the Princess?

They want to make the people happy and make them think that the King wants to marry the Princess. They want Rassendyll to ask the Princess to marry him. Some people think that if the King doesn't marry her soon, she should marry Duke Michael

51. Rassendyll tells the Princess that when he was younger, he thought he didn't need to worry about society. Why does he say this? How does the Princess react? Why is it a mistake for him to say this?

He says it because he is forgetting to act like the King. He is thinking that he is himself, Rassendyll. The Princess is surprised because the King must have always known that he was going to become the King one day. This is a mistake by Rassendyll because he almost uncovers the truth about who he is 52. The day after the ball, the Princess receives two letters. What are they and who are they from?

One is an invitation from Michael for her to visit him in Zenda. The other is a warning not to accept any invitations from Michael and not to go anywhere without many guards. It is from Antoinette de Mauban (although the Princess doesn't know this)

53. What does Rassendyll do when he hears of these letters? Who does he go to?

He orders a guard for the Princess. He goes to Marshal Strakencz and gives him some orders

54. What does Rassendyll tell Marshal Strakencz to do?

He tells him to guard the Princess and not allow Michael or his men hear her. He also tells the Marshal that he is leaving Strelsau for a few days and he will send a message to him every evening. If he doesn't get a message for three days, he has the authority to say that he is now the head of Strelsau

Read the quotations and answer the questions

It would be very useful for Michael if you disappeared. "And if you disappear, the game's over"

Who says this to whom? Sapt says this to Rassendyll .1

Why does the speaker say this? 2. Because Rassendyll complained that there are always men following him. (The men were ordered by Sapt to do so.)

What game would be over if the person disappeared? 3 .Explain

The game of who is King. Michael would also kill the real King and then make himself King .3

I also have a game to play. I'll tell the Duke's men that "you never came. If the Duke doesn't find out what I've done, we may meet again"

Who says this to whom? Antoinette de Mauban says this to Rassendyll .1

Where are they? They are in a summer house in a garden in Strelsau .2

What has the speaker done that the Duke shouldn't find out? 3

She has warned Rassendyll that they are trying to kill him, and has told him how to escape

Rassendyll had sent the bags ahead to the station on the morning of the day he met the King in the woods. He never went to the station to get them because he was pretending to be the King. .A. Answer these questions

77. Where does Rassendyll wait for it to be two o'clock?

He waits by the drawbridge gate next to the castle

78. Rassendyll has asked Antoinette to cry for help at two o'clock. Why does she do it earlier?

Because she is being attacked by Rupert. He wants to punish .her for writing to Rassendyll

79. Why does Rassendyll kill De Gautet with a sword and not with a gun?

Because he doesn't want to make any noise and attract other .people

80.How does Rassendyll get the keys to the King's prison?

He takes them from De Gautet's clothes after he kills him

81. Who gets killed in the first room of the King's prison? Who gets killed in the room where the King is? Who gets wounded?

Bersonin gets killed in the first room. In the room where the King is, the doctor is killed by Detchard, and Detchard is killed by Rassendyll. The King and Rassendyll are both .wounded

82. Why doesn't the King fight Detchard directly? How does he help Rassendyll?

The King is weak from illness and in chains. He can't move much because of the chains. He helps Rassendyll by pushing a chair into Detchard as he is fighting. (This makes him lose his balance and fall over the doctor's body. Then it is easy for Rassendyll to kill him.)

83. Who kills the Duke?. Rupert Hentzau.

86. Why does Sapt have the real King taken from his prison with his face covered? What do Sapt's men and the servants think happened to the King and to the prisoner? Why does Rassendyll wait in the forest until dark to go to the castle?

Sapt doesn't want his men or the servants to see who the prisoner really is. They think that the King was wounded in the fight to rescue the prisoner, and that the prisoner went after Rupert Hentzau. Rassendyll waits until he can go into the castle under the cover of dark. He doesn't want anyone to see him.

87. How does Rassendyll teach the King how to be a real king?

He takes his responsibilities as King seriously and tries to run the country well. He risks his own life to rescue the King, and could have remained King.

88. What does Rassendyll mean when he writes "Nobody knew where Rupert had disappeared to, and the thought of the man who had almost beaten me still makes my heart beat louder in my chest"?

It means when he thinks of Rupert he gets excited or angry. He wishes he could find him and fight him.

89. Do you think Rassendyll was right to pretend to be the King for the coronation? Was he right to continue to pretend to be the King for so long?90. Why doesn't Rassendyll remain the King? No one can deny that national unity in Egypt plays a very important role in our society as Islam and Christianity are the two main religions in Egypt. It is well known that Egypt is a peace-loving nation, so peace, safety and security should prevail among her people whether Muslims or Christians. Muslims and Christians, regardless of religion, are Egyptians; they live on the same land; they breathe the same air and drink from one Nile and belong to one country (Egypt), so they should co-operate all together to face external challenges and prevent anyone from causing any sectarian sedition in Egypt. They should enjoy love and understanding and at the same time, they should be hand in hand to defend Egypt. In brief, the school, the house, the mosque and the church have a role to teach children how to respect other religions. (149 words)
